24 - Hour Clock

In public announcements such as timetables and schedules, the "official" twenty-four-hour system is commonly used, with midnight as the starting point as the "zero hour." The words minuit, midi, quart and demi are not used, and the number of minutes is expressed by a full number.

0 h 20	zéro heure vingt	12:20 a.m.
11 h 10	onze heures dix	11:10 a.m.
15 h 30	quinze heures trente	3:30 p.m.
22 h 40	vingt-deux heures quarante	10:40 p.m.
21 h 15	vingt et une heures quinze	9:15 p.m.

Write out these times in French using the 24-hour clock.
